COLUMN APPEARED

WASHINGTON POST 2 December 1985

ACLU Asks Probe Of U.S. Effort Azafast Qaddafi

mate Intelligence Committee should determine whether President Reagan has "secretly suspended" a ban against assassinations in the CIA's reported covertaction against Libyan leader Muammar Qaddafi, the American Civil

Associated Press

Citing a Nov. 3 report in The Washington Post that Reagan had approved a campaign against Qaddafi, the ACLU also urged the oversight committee to ensure that "effective steps" are taken to prevent the killing of Qaddafi.

Liberties Union said yesterday.

According to the Post report, committee leaders had expressed concern about the Central Intelligence Agency covert operation because they feared it could end in Qaddafi's assassination.